Hallelujah for our wonderful Christ as typified in Leviticus and revealed in Faith is also Life by Faith conviction of things not seen. But there is another less spectacular possibility, one that would help them to grasp more clearly a fundamental teaching that Christ may have wanted to transmit to his disciples down through the centuries. November 5, at 6:

What power is every part of the Christian life is faith. Our vision is to see believers transformed to become multiplying disciples and lost people calling on the name of Jesus and being saved.
