The elder Bernardone, a most niggardly man, was incensed beyond measure at his son's conduct, and Francis, to avert his father's wrath, hid himself in a cave near St. Shortly before his death, he dictated a new will to recommend that his brothers faithfully observe the rule and work manually, not for the desire of luxuries, but to avoid idleness and to give a good example.

He took with him Brother Leo, but he prohibited anyone from coming to visit him. A Saint for Everyone There certainly does not exist any other saint that is as popular as he is, both among Catholics as well as Protestants and even among non-Christians. Francis's love of creatures was not simply the offspring of a soft or sentimental disposition; it arose rather from that deep and abiding sense of the presence of God, which underlay all he said and did. Dressed in that way, he began to exhort people to penance with so much energy that his words penetrated the hearts of his listeners.

Franciscan Herald Press, hardback. Francis was one of several children. Sure we need a personal relationship with Jesus.
