A Kirkus Reviews critic called Ransom at Sea a "crisp, traditional whodunit with amusing character portraits and a satisfying finale. New York Rights Fair. Apparently dead from respiratory arrest but probably poisoned, Riccardo Nuevo may not even be the intended victim, since cast and crew liked him as opposed to the titanically-egoed diva, tempestuous mezzo-soprano Maria Cortez.

The behind-the-scenes exposure was interesting but I kept wondering just wh

How to write a great review. Customer Ratings We have not received enough ratings to display an average for this book.

Hunter's debut novel, Presence of Mind, introduces Jeremy Ransom, a jaded but cerebral Chicago homicide detective who is fond of Dickens, and his unlikely comrade in sleuthing, elderly, grandmotherly Emily Charters.

ALittleDachshundsTale. Ruthless industrialist Louie Dolores unleashes a storm of controversy when he sponsors an exhibit of sacred ancient mummies in his corporate headquarters, Chicago's Dolores Tower. When the engaging, low-key Jeremy gets assigned the case, he's dismayed to find that, besides the principals of the cast, there are 30 members of the chorus and another 20 extras, as well as stagehands and crew.
