Find new passions and rediscover old ones. What does one do when untethered? Two in a Tent: Showingof5reviews.Starting this book, you think it's like every other who-dun-it, but you progress a mere 15 pages before you realize the "murder" itself is only second and even third to the engaging philosophical layers rooted deep with the psyche of the characters, and furthermore, their beliefs as they deal with everyday issues in a completely original, albeit their own quirky ways, ways that Crown portrays perhaps might be the correct way to deal with such Chronic Passions. The murder of a young woman Chronic Passions a series of events that pit a philosophical assassin, a charismatic detective, and the heir of a vicious mob family against each .
