Let us not shrink from bearing responsibilities. This emphasis breathes throughout these sermons. That you should train and discipline your children?

Those who do not labor for the salvation of others will soon lose their own confidence. Perhaps you have a sin of self-indulgence to remove; perhaps some member should be removed, and it is better to enter into life maimed than to perish with all your members. We have it, then what should we do?

Why do we not get rid of these habits? I am thankful this morning to see so many of you say you do; but we can tell whether you do or not. Oh, we shall see Him in His matchless charms.
