So if the bill passes, someone living in disputed territories in Syria caught up in the civil war, or a woman at risk of being the victim of an honour killing, may be sent home. They think that it's the optimal situation. Anyone know if this is an issue?

How else do you think they get there, walking? A friend of mine's son tried to go. Those places should have gone to real refugees. We pick and choose our friends and ignore those that invade our space. If you subscribe after the launch of Knights of the Fallen Empire, you will receive a free copy of the book. The government, Labor or Liberal, is innocent of such dastardly tactics, and it is indeed abhorrent. They are reviewed by his own party and indeed the people at an election.
