IMHO This book explores the question does the power make a man mad or is the man mad to begin with? I liked and disliked the uniqueness of the story. This movie is definitely worth the 86 minutes it takes to watch it! Theanswersarehere: However, when all story lines get tied up neatly at the end, it give the effect, for me, at least, of a Hallmark film -- a bit too sweet for frequent consumption. One problem I had with this book was that every time it looked as if something interesting would happen, it didn't.

Iespeciallylikeacoupleofthegruffercharacters:From what Hagrid does in the books, it can be assumed that the Keeper of the Keys does these things on the job:
