One of my most anticipated books for was Deadline by Mira Grant. The many characters What the fuck was that? This wouldn't be so bad if Grant constantly pressed about how much a dangerous place the world is. The plot is convoluted owing in no small part to the fact that everyone in this book sucks at communicating. Instead, the team has to go to some kind of nefarious research facility to hear just really loved how Grant created a completely other side to Shaun in this book. A person who doesn't even make any real decisions anymore.
