The character was originally voiced by Anatoli Papanov. His first appearance on this show featured him as a jazz artist called "Big Bad Wolf Daddy" a parody of Big Bad Voodoo Daddy performing a swing version of his song with the Pigs as his backup band they are under a contract that states he will eat them if they do not play for . It is notably tamer than the older stories which contained darker themes. And Aesop's fables date back to the sixth century B. Wolf is merely a fiction made up to conceal his guilt. As far as scaring kids? Read Baba Yag; a Russian fairy story one of my favourites!
