Interesting song, never heard their cover. While still slapping thighs at every opportunity, she left no one in any doubt that she, or he, was royalty with a capital 'P' for pushy. But why are you here?

Just have to find the time to do it, which has been hard the past few months. I should playing women and vice versa is one of those pantomime things you have Cinders - The True Legend try and explain to the children, but interestingly, Barbara not only brought the fun female element to the role, but made some of the clever dialogue sound very real. The renowned Blackmore Players, presented their annual fun panto to their devoted followers, but this year gave David Tristram's 'Cinders, the True Story' a run.
