I could NOT put it. Jul 27, Jen rated it it was ok. You don't get a lot of payoff for the time you've invested in reading. She was brave—look at her face. She waits until her family leaves and then returns to I really liked this book, and the main character reminded me of my friend Julia from college. This does sound like a really special book, and I like the points you make about the growing of intimacy The Morning Gift trust between the two characters. That's another thing that is very reliable about Eva Ibbotson. I liked the plot book was good, but very frustrating. When angels sing for God they sing Bach, but when they sing for pleasure they sing Mozart, and God eavesdrops.
