As her comment suggests, it is also ironic that her society stresses the importance of the boy child while undermining the girl child, who is also needed, because the continued growth of the family name is impossible without a woman. Consequently, many women have learnt to remain silent and, as we have seen, this is a tradition that has been passed on from mothers to daughters.

It is as if light emanates from men while women are the shadow that lingers. Her Not only does polygamy deprive a woman of her right to own property, but it also deprives her of her sense of individual selfhood, as she is expected to submit completely to her husband and his relatives and is never regarded as a separate person in her own right.
