Published on March 8, Another shortfall to me was that I felt like the authors were shouting at me throughout the book. Jul18, BenZajdel added it. Instead of a tournament, fans are subjected to the Bowl Championship Series, The authors make a fast reading, thought provoking and seemingly well-researched case for replacing the badly flawed BCS system with a sixteen team championship playoff ending up at the Rose Bowl. LetYourMindRun. Death to the BCS includes findings from interviews with power players, as well as research into federal tax records, Congressional testimony, and private contracts, revealing:
