See 1 question about Our Bodies, Our Crimes... I strongly recommend it. An exceptional addition to the canon of books on reproductive justice and civil rights for women. HannahGoldrateditreallylikeditJul27,Reviews"Flavin'sbookshowshowA The writing style is engaging and the examples are fascinating enough to keep the pace moving briskly - so it rarely becomes boring or overly academic. Thank you for using the catalog. Through vivid and disturbing case studies, Flavin shows how the state seeks to establish what a "good woman" and "fit mother" should look like and whose reproduction is valued.
