Critics Consensus: Breathless rewrote the rules of cinema -- and more than 50 years after its arrival, Jean-Luc Godard's paradigm-shifting classic remains every .

Breathless is an exercise in detachment. The camera hovers above the city, but it never seems to touch it. The dialogue is simple and profound, but it's often so.

After 50 years, Jean-Luc Godard's "Breathless" still defies conventional expectations about what a movie should be.
