A few short weeks after he reaches the battalion, an attack by an unknown enemy sends James on the adventure of a lifetime. Would you like to report poor quality or formatting in this book? I read this book in two sessions, only stopping for food and sleep.

James however is more than up to the task. I am not sure how Murison is able to do it. It began to dawn on me the real journey had only just begun. Howard Browning rated it it was amazing Aug 23, As a normal working man and the price of editing the same as about a couple of weeks or edit your browsing history. I am a character writer and have discovered they more often than not the characters write the stories for me, leading me on some wild adventures, dictated by their own personality's as they begin to develop as the novel progresses.
