But if this were so, the Church would lose her fundamental meaning. Techniques of evangelization are good, but even the most advanced ones could not replace the gentle action of the Spirit. It brings with it a wisdom that is not of this world. Jesus said, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. Indeed, Einstein clearly believed, as seen in many quotations above, that the universe was comprehensible and rational, but he also described this characteristic of the universe as a "miracle". Let it suffice, in this meditation, to mention a number of methods which, for one reason or another, have a fundamental importance.

And when we do all these things, within our human limits and by the grace of God, what is she doing?
