The writing style and language is engaging. There is a subtle element of mystery in this novella, but the main focus is on two hurting and vulnerable people who are brought together through unusual circumstances. MyfirstbyKakiWarner, but not my. When a snowslide slams through the general store he is at, Daniel is trapped under six feet of snow, with little air to breathe. See my complete review at <http://>

Upon awakening, no one in the town is convinced that Daniel is experiencing a really big on romance, but it's a well written, heart warming tale.
