That is, if I can find another which I like as well as this one! I did find a number of typos, some of them in the quantity of ingredient, where the amount was displayed as a percentage sign.

Please try again later. I would categorize it as a book for moderately advanced. From a Persian Kitchen Atosa Sepehr. It's easy to find the recipe you want, and browsing is fun .

For the rest of the cookbook, there are chapters on just about anything you could think of. This book is not yet featured on Listopia. Others weren't so bad, could still understand the word.
