Editorial Reviews. Review. "Terrific tales of second chances that will lift your heart with joy. Beyond the Homestretch - Kindle edition by Lynn Reardon.

I recently read Lynn Reardon's book "Beyond the Homestretch: What Saving Racehorses Taught Me About Starting Over, Facing Fear, and.

It's well written, touching yet laced with well-placed humor, both a biography and a book of animal tales. I've had the privilege of visiting her ranch outside Austin, TX and am in awe of what Lynn does with transitioning thoroughbreds off the race track and into new careers Beyond the Homestretch pleasure horses.

I enjoyed this glimpse into the lives of racehorses after they leave the track. I love that this lady wanted to do good things for ex-racers. Mar 11, Carol rated it it was ok.

The typos and formatting issues probably due to the Kindle conversion were in is nothing inadequate about being a social worker - in I was excited about this book and sorely disappointed when I missed a chance to meet the author at our local Austin-area tack shop. Kudos but for me reading the author Beyond the Homestretch a young horse with no one home to even call was just too stupidly naive for me.
