Discovering Your Personal Communication Style" You will come to understand your own needs better and develop more patience and skill listening to others.

It's a good idea to determine just what sort of a teacher you are. Every one of these traits can be found in the best teachers; however, we all have personal styles, learning means to you or what you want it to mean to the students you meet. I knew I needed them if I was to reach my goal of finding that "education is fun.

Since each person has a preferred style of communication, once you think about it and determine their style, you can communicate effectively by adapting your style to meet the needs of their style. A chapter is devoted to each component and includes a discussion of its inherent strengths and challenges, along with activities for skill development.

In some communication family cultures there is -too much- room for conflict or it is avoided at all times. I really notice tone of voice when someone is speaking. Because your strength lies in conceptualizing in words, your explanations and descriptions are naturally clear and precise.
