Quotes from Life After. My own summer holiday will be spent in Sweden doing research for a book. It was an emotional journey from beginning to end and if I could tell Ms. Shedidn't understand why people starved to death and children ended up in orphan Maybe comfort wasn't to be found in the why. She is the lone survivor from the crash, caused by a bomber. I listened to the audio book and the narrator didn't work very hard to distinguish between the two main female characters which made it confusing for the first half of the book.
