The few authorities who do permit ten women to use the zimmun be-Shem formulation explain that the necessity for ten in this case is unique and cannot be compared to other instances requiring minyan. Womens Minyan Rama OH2 follows this opinion. The use of "congregation" Kahal to exclude women is problematic, however: IgrotMosheOHv. God's love that is always available Womens Minyan all equally is best conveyed in what way? It is clear that, even though the term "children of Israel" is used concerning this mitzva, women are definitely commanded to sanctify the name of God equally with men, and, hence, regarding this Womens Minyan, they are not excluded from the class of "men".
