He conquered most of the known world before most people today are out of college and into their first job. Similarly, in a management setting, a manager must be able to exercise empowered delegation so as to achieve the desired outcomes of productivity, psychological and physical health, proactivity and innovativeness, persistence in work, trustworthiness, interpersonal effectiveness, intrinsic motivation, and high morale and commitment. As a leader in a position of power, you are vulnerable to physical strains, psychological stress, and an oversized ego. Customerswhoviewedthisitemalsoviewed. Throughout this book, Martino celebrates the warrior, the king, and the history of the commander who was worshipped as a god during his own life, and shows how his leadership skills and strategies apply to modern life.
